

Australasian Law Teachers Association Conference

Law, Love and Revenge: Themes from The Merchant...

4 – 6 July 2018 in Perth, Western Australia

Australasian Law Teachers Association

ALTA Conference 2018 Program

Wednesday 4th July 2018

Welcome Reception Venue: Curtin University St George's Terrace, 139 St Georges Terrace

15.00-17.00	Executive Meeting at Curtin Law School, 57 Murray Street (Seminar Room 110)
17.00-19.00	Welcome Reception and Registration

Thursday 5th July 2018

Conference Venue: Curtin Law School, 57 Murray Street

8.00	Registration
8.20	Welcome from Conference Chair, Professor Paul Fairall
8.25	Welcome to Country by Nick Abraham
8.45	Official Welcome by Professor Deborah Terry AO, Vice-Chancellor, Curtin University.
8.50-9.30	Keynote speaker (Lecture Room 208) – Emeritus Professor Rosalind Croucher AM FRSA FACLM (Hon) FAAL TEP, President of the Australian Human Rights Commission

Shylock and antisemitism — reflections on the 70th anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights
9.35-9.55	Morning Tea - 78 Murray Street			Sponsored by Federation Press
ROOM:	Lecture Room 110	Lecture Room 112	Lecture Room 208	Moot Court
THEME:	'fie upon your law!': law and otherness	'But love is blind': law and the regulation of human relationships Sponsored by Oxford University Press	'Thou shalt have justice': law and social justice	my ducats!': money, mercy and the regulation of commercial relationships
CPD Points	N/A	Competency Area 4: 1.5 Points	Competency Area 2: 0.5 Points Competency Area 4: 0.5 Points	Competency Area 4: 1.5 Points
CHAIR:	Pnina Levine	Hugh Finn	Robert Cunningham	Donovan Castelyn
10.00-10.20	What Do Law Teachers Need to be Taught About Teaching? Jackson Walkden-Brown and Nick James	Vicarious liability and Deatons v Flew: emotion and reason in the HCA Prue Vines	Reasoning with laws: "the law hath yet another hold on you" Craig Duncan	PTSD as a bodily injury: close, but not close enough Charles Giacco
10.20-10.40	Becoming a Law Teacher ... Again Molly Townes O'Brien	The Credibility Rule and Explaining Human Behaviour Amy Begley	Negotiation and consultation regimes when the development of natural resources is proposed on Indigenous lands Margaret Stephenson	When a lease fails to provide protection for commercial landlords and tenants! A case study on the regulation of these relationships after the Canterbury earthquakes Toni Collins
10.40-11.00	"And the other one's a fish": why are lawyers still so reviled in public perceptions? Rick Sarre	Law and Literature - Does the growing field of Law and Literature reflect the development of a new major subject in the law curriculum or is its relevance more as an	The Right to Tax in a Global Polity Mark Bowler Smith	Are Entire Agreement Clauses Entirely Effective? Stephen Graw

		interdisciplinary topic linking law and the humanities? Emeritus Professor David Barker AM
11.00-11.20	Access to examination papers: policy, practice and the courts Patty Kamvounias	'Love Is Love' but that Love Ain't Always Legal: Evaluating the Definition of Marriage Post Same-Sex Marriage Reform in Australia Sandra Hanna	Neuroplasticity, belief bias and IRAC –old pedagogy but brand-new tools for first year legal education? Kenneth Yin	Excluding the operation of the statutory prohibition on misleading or deceptive conduct Matt Berkahn
11.20-11.40	A Critical Evaluation of the Relevance of Design Thinking for Lawyers Kate Galloway and Nick James	Comparative Law in Chinese Legal Education Vai Io Lo	Street Law Mary Anne Kenny and Angie Italiano	E-Commerce: Tax and Consumer Law implications of Goods Warehousing Dr Prafula Pearce and Prof Dale Pinto
11.40-12.00	What Role for Critically Reflective Teaching to Address the Othering of Indigenous Law Students? Jeni Engel	Restoring sight: Equity's role in unravelling arrangements made in once loving relationships that become unloving Penny Carruthers		Is Money the 'Roof of all Evil', or can the BEAR restore trust and confidence in the bank-customer relationship? Tracey Mylecharane and Prof Sally Wheeler
12.05-13.10	Lunch - 78 Murray St
13.15– 13.55	Keynote speaker (Lecture Room 208) – Nicholas Hasluck AM, QC, Author and former Supreme Court Judge Degrees of Guilt in the Merchant of Venice

ROOM:	Lecture Room 110	Lecture Room 112	Lecture Room 208	Moot Court
THEME:	'fie upon your law!': law and otherness	'But love is blind': law and the regulation of human relationships Sponsored by Oxford University Press	'Thou shalt have justice': law and social justice	my ducats!': money, mercy and the regulation of commercial relationships
CPD Points	N/A	N/A	N/A	Competency Area 4: 1 Point
CHAIR:	Margaret Stephenson	Helen Hodgson	Eileen Webb	Hugh Finn
14.00-14.20	Facebook: bridging the 'otherness' of distance legal education Amanda-Jane George	"How far that little candle throws his beams!" – The journey of regional law students after Clinical Legal Education Mandy Shircore	How do international students who are non-law students study Australian law? Patty Kamvounias and Anna Ward	The ACCC's pursuit of corporate respondents in the VET sector now operating under external administration: What hurdles to overcome and will it be worth the effort? Mary Wyburn
14.20-14.40	Is it Possible to Bridge Pākehā (European) and Māori Views on Governing the Nation? Deliberative Democracy as a Tool to Teach Legal Essay Writing in a Māori Development Post-Graduate Class Nadia Dabee	The Heterosexuality of the Law and legal Education in Western Australia Melville Thomas	Law Student Wellness and Digital Disruption Nick James	Assessing the taxing rights of source countries in relation to the remote provision of technical services under tax treaties John Taylor

14.40-15.00	A Brief History of Legal Education: A Battle Between Law as a Science and Law as a Liberal Art Joshua Krook	Law Teachers' Perceptions of Stress at Work: An international comparison Colin James	Is There Justice for First Peoples in Legal Education? The Indigenous Cultural Competency for Legal Academics Program Marcelle Burns	Tarry a little. There is something else. This bond doth give thee here no jot of blood Robert Guthrie
15.05-15.30	Afternoon tea - 78 Murray St			Sponsored by Federation Press
15.35-16.15	Keynote Speaker (Lecture Room 208) – Associate Professor Kieran Tranter, Griffith University Shakespeare, Media and the Future of Law
18.00-22.00	Conference Dinner – Fraser's Restaurant 60 Fraser Ave, West Perth

Friday 6th July 2018

Conference Venue: Curtin Law School, 57 Murray Street

9.00	Registration
9.20-10.00	Keynote Speaker (Lecture Room 208) – Mitch Kowalski, University of Calgary Law School Love, Revenge and Caskets: Legal Services and Law Schools in the 21st Century
10.05-10.25	Morning Tea - 78 Murray St			Sponsored by Thomson Reuters
ROOM	Lecture Room 110	Lecture Room 112	Lecture Room 208	Moot Court
THEME:	'fie upon your law!': law and otherness	'But love is blind': law and the regulation of human relationships	'Thou shalt have justice': law and social justice	'(the) villainy you teach me': law and ethics
CPD Points	Competency Area 3: 0.5 Points	Competency Area 4: 1 Point	N/A	N/A

CHAIR:	Prina Levine	Prafula Pearce	Mostafa Haider	Robert Cunningham
10.30-10.50	'A unity of theory and practice' A snapshot of law in action Christopher Shanahan SC	But love is... not required: the emerging picture of the important role played by (non-enforceable agreements) in the regulation of surrogacy relationships Debra Wilson	The place of cultural values, norms and practices in an assessment of unconscionability in commercial transactions: Kobelt v Australian Securities and Investments Commission Rachel Yates and Sharmin Tania	'Want, Expect, Don't Want': A Pragmatic Student-Centred Learning Technique to Implement in Law Classrooms Liam Elphick
10.50-11.10	Implementing Interteaching Techniques for Law Teaching Elizabeth Shi	Using blockchain to resolve disputes Alex Sims	Legal Information and Technology: Why the contents of Portia's caskets matter more than the caskets themselves Craig Duncan	An authentic visual constructionist approach to learning the law Prof Stephen Colbran
11.10-11.30	Succeed, Forget, Repeat: Threshold Concepts And Variation Theory In Understanding How Law Students Build Competency Alex Steel	Teaching Legal Skills in Evidence and Dispute Resolution: Scaffolding Learning Through Video Kathy Douglas	Post World War II Icons of Australian Legal Education: Professors David Derham, Hal Wootten, Dennis Pearce and Tom Cain - Do they satisfy the criteria? Emeritus Prof David Barker AM	Moving Beyond Indigenous Deficit in the Model Admission Rules for Legal Practitioners Marcelle Burns
11.30-11.50	Non-profit legal services in remote areas need law school collaborations too! Judy Harrison	The E.U.'s General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR): Comparing Implementation Challenges for American and Australian Firms Richard G. Kunkel, J.D	Preparing for Practice: Clinical Legal Education through the Lens of Legal Education Discourse Jackson Walkden-Brown	Law Students' Awareness of University Graduate Attributes Leigh Smith and Christina Do
11.50-13.15	Lunch - 78 Murray St

12.00-13.15	ALTA AGM - Moot Court
13.20-14.00	Keynote Speaker (Lecture Room 208) – Raelene Webb QC, Barrister at Murray Chambers Treaties and Land Governance – Whose Land is it Anyway?
ROOM	Lecture Room 110	Lecture Room 112	Lecture Room 208	Moot Court
THEME:	'my ducats!': money, mercy and the regulation of commercial relationships	'But love is blind': law and the regulation of human relationships	'Thou shalt have justice': law and social justice	'(the) villainy you teach me': law and ethics
CPD Points	Competency Area 4: 1 Point	Competency Area 4: 0.5 points	N/A	N/A
CHAIR:	Rachel Yates	Mostafa Haider	Sharmin Tania	Anna Bunn
14.05-14.25	Firm 'culture' and corporate governance in Australia: A paradigm shift? Andrew Clarke	Directors' — Fitness for office John Orr	What Should We Teach in Criminal Law? Helen Gibbon and Alex Steel	I Flipped the Law and the Law Won: Flipping the Law Classroom for Higher Level Learning Kate Offer
14.25-14.45	Assuming the facts – FC of T v Hacon Robin Woellner	There is a Lady Richly Left... Household Decision Making and the Australian Retirement Income System Helen Hodgson	"How do we sleep while our beds are burning": Time for Constitutional Reform Julie Cassidy	With a little help from my friends ... Jennifer Nielsen
14.45-15.05	Has Law been Blind to Graphics...? The Promise of Graphic Contracts Camilla Andersen	Do the threshold learning outcomes mandate a teleological account of legal theory? Should they? Tomas Fitzgerald and Laura Fitzgerald	The suspension of a university staff member – how adequate is the law? Pnina Levine	The deconstruction of the tort of negligence into its syllogistic elements Kenneth Yin

15.10-15.35	Afternoon tea - 78 Murray St	Sponsored by Thomson Reuters
15.40-15.50	Pre-Debate Performance – Trial Scene from The Merchant of Venice
15.50-16.50	Debate: Is Portia a good role model for aspiring advocates? (Lecture Room 208) Professor William MacNeil, Southern Cross University (Chair) Against: Prof Paul Fairall, Claudia Carr, Stuart Shepherd For: Leigh Smith, Meika Atkins, Linda Black
16.50-17.00	Closing Remarks
17.00-18.00	Casual closing function hosted by Curtin Student Law Society

CPD Point Allocation

Competency Area 2 - Professional Skills

Competency Area 2 – Ethics & Professional Responsibility

Competency Area 4 – Substantive Law